INDEX TO VOL. CII

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ADM

ADMINISTRATION, The, of the British Army, 624–630
Agricultural depression in England and Wales, 'livestock the farmer's sheet-anchor,' 216–226
Agricultural Problem, The, and its Solution, 465–478
Alexander the Great as an Explorer, 565–573
American and British exports to China compared, 192–193
American War of Independence, John Burgoyne and the, 427 et seq.
Anglo-Japanese Alliance, arguments advanced by English Press in favour of retaining summarised, 165–166
Anglo-Japanese Co-operation and the Far East, 158–171
Animal kingdom, no need to postulate a descent or ascent of man from, 593
Astor (Viscount), Reform of the House of Lords, 437–446
Atrocities in Russia, 'world tired of getting excited about,' 653
Australia and the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, 170

BANNER (Delmar Harmood), Holman Hunt and Pre-Raphaelitism, 546–557
Bannister (Rev. Canon A. T.), Parish Life in the Fourteenth Century, 399–404
Bell (Rev. H. Chalmer), The State Appointment of Bishops, 794–804
Betting prob bly more universal in spite of restrictive legislation, 360
Birds in Ancient Egypt, 500–507
Black Wind, The, 574–580
Bonner (George H.), Science and Truth, 337–346; The Case against 'Evolution,' 581–596

CLA

Bookmakers and professionals at Lord's in the early days of cricket, 71
Booth (Meyrick), The Present-Day Education of Girls: an Indictment, 259–269
Bowden-Smith (E. C.), Conrad's Ship, 282–291
British industry, emigration from Ireland increased by disturbance in, 187–188
Broadcasting, the State and the People, 667–674
Burke (E. T.), The Toll of Secret Disease, 675–686
Burke (Thomas), The Obsequies of Mr. Williams, 840–850

CANADA and bilingualism, 327–336
Capture of the Co-operative Movement, The, 315–326
Catlin (George E. G.), Historical Mysticism and Political Science, 227–236
Ceremonial, why the propensity to preserve and create it is stronger amongst men than women, 520
Ceremony, 519–527
Chess in History and Fiction, 78–88
China and Bolshevism, 38 et seq.
China as a Market, 190–197
Christianity a universal religion presenting a variegated aspect, 3
Churchill (Mr. Winston) and the Battle of Jutland, 198 et seq.
Clark (James B. M.), French and English in the Province of Quebec, 327–336
Clarke (Rev. A. H. T.), The Nation and the Prayer-Book, 597–610
Clarke (Lieut.-Gen. Sir Travers), The Administration of the British Army, 624–630
Class war a precise repudiation of Christianity, 14

CLE

Clergy, duties, privileges, etc., of in the fourteenth century, 399 et seq.
Cochrane (Alfred), Early and Modern Cricket, 67–77
Communism in India, 38–47
Conrad's Ship, 282–291
Conservative peers and working-class representatives in the House of Lords, 180
Cook (W. Davidson), Lockhart's Treatment of Scott's Letters, 382–398
Co-operation a great constructive force, 325
Correspondence: 'Chess in History and Fiction,' 292; 'Science and Truth' and 'The Case Against "Evolution",' 862–864; 'The Future of District Nursing,' 865–870
Country Gentleman, A, in London in the Eighteenth Century, 405–416
Crabitès (Pierre), Ismail the Magnificent, 108–119
Craftsmanship and the Scientific Economist, 237–249
Cricket, the origin of, 68
Cricket, outline of the progress of for two centuries, 67–73
Curzon of Kedleston (Lord) and Warren Hastings, 704–705, 707

DANTE'S Divine Comedy, personalities in compared with Shakespeare's and Goethe's, 509, 517
Darwin (Bernard), Early and Modern Golf, 347–355
Dearmer (Rev. Percy), Prayer-Book Revision and Common Sense, 805–812
Dictatorship in Russia, what the Bolsheviks have accomplished in ten years, 652–666
Diplomatic service in the seventeenth century, status of, 558
Disher (M. Willson), The Equestrian Drama, 830–839
Distribution of Wealth, The, 749–761
Dramatic Episode in the History of Russia, A, 368–381
Durham (Right Rev. the Bishop of), The Passing of National Churches, 1–14
Dutch and British in South Africa, the Nationalist Party and, 642 et seq.

FUT

EARLY and Modern Cricket, 67-77
Early and Modern Golf, 347-355
Early Victorian women, imaginary assumptions of modern writers in regard to, 253
East India Company, The, and John Burgoyne, 427
Egypt, economic condition of improved owing to rise of cotton prices during the American Civil War, 109–110
England and Wales, summary of statistics showing the use made of agricultural land in, and the value of its products, 469 et seq.
England's treatment of Japan at the Washington Conference, its possibly harmful effect on the future relations of the two countries, 295
English, The, of the new Prayer-Book criticised, 606
English and German plays, Hazlitt's comparison of, 133
English working-class women anti-Bolshevik by nature, 825
Equestrian Drama, The, 830–839
European civilisation, two ruling races in South Africa an outpost of, in a 'black' continent, 649
Evans (P. V. Emrys), Nationalism in South Africa, 642–651
Evolution,' The Case against, 581–596

FABIAN Society and the seeds of revolution in Britain, 179
Farmer's Sheet-Anchor, The, 216–226
Fascism in its Relation to Freedom, 479–493
Fascism, what it implies, and its origin, 480–485
Feminine character, opinions of psychologists on, 261
Folklore of Edinburgh, The, 89–97, 270–281
Ford (Ford Madox), 'Pax,' 145–157
Fox (R. M.), Ireland: Retrospect and Prospect, 184–189
French and English in the Province of Quebec, 327–336
French-Canadians mainly anxious to preserve the present status quo of Canada as an independent unit in the British Commonwealth, 329
Future of District Nursing, The, 494–499

GAE

GAELIC, Irish Free State and the teaching of, controversy over, 188
George Gissing : a Character Sketch, 417–424
Gilmour (Lady Susan), 'The Future of District Nursing,' 869–870
Girls, the present-day education of, 259–269
Gissing (Ellen), George Gissing : a Character Sketch, 417–424
Gladstone (Rt Hon. W. E) and Prof. T. H. Huxley on Evolution, extracts from articles in The Nineteenth Century, 1885–86... 582–583
Gladstone, public economy a matter of business and morality to, 743
Goethe's theory of history discussed, 141
Golf, history of, earlier and better ascertained than cricket, 347
'Gooti,' 48–53
Gordon (Seton), The Black Wind, 574–580
Government, indictment of present, for lost opportunities, 729–730
Gull (E. M.), China as a Market, 190–197

HART (H. L. A.), The position of the late Sir Walter Raleigh among Literary Critics, 528–545
Hertzog (General), his triumph at the Imperial Conference, 647
Hight (George Ainslie), 'Science and Truth' and 'The Case against "Evolution",' 862–864
Hindus, no desire for democracy by, 30
Historical Mysticism and Political Science, 227–236
History the basis of political science in more senses than one, 235
Holman Hunt and Pre-Raphaelitism, 546-557
House of Commons and the Dail compared, 187
Hudlestone (F. J.), John Burgoyne, 425–434
Human Personality in Dante's 'Divine Comedy,' 508–518

IMPERIAL Parliament, The, and the Empire, 302–314
India and Communism, 38 et seq.
Indian Army and the Reforms, 28–37

LIB

Industrial unrest, extension of Safeguarding of Industries Act and preferential trading within the Empire as remedies for, 727
Inter-Imperial Relations Report, statements on its effect by three Dominion Prime Ministers, 305; extracts from the Report, 307–308
Ireland : Retrospect and Prospect, 184–189
Is Anglo-Japanese Rapprochement Practicable ? 293–301
Ismail the Magnificent, 108–119

JACKSON (E. Millicent), The Future of District Nursing, 494–499
Jane Austen and a Forgotten Dramatist, 125–134
Japan's ultimatum to and declaration of war on Germany, value of to Great Britain and her Allies, 163
Japanese 'beauty' and folklore, 708–724
Jesus and intoxicating drink, 356
John Burgoyne, 425-434
Jutland and the 'Unforeseen,' 198–207

KAWAKAMI (Kiyoshi K.), Is Anglo-Japanese Rapprochement Practicable ? 293–301
Kelly (I. G.), 'Chess in History and Fiction,' 292
Kennedy (Captain M. D.), Anglo-Japanese Co-operation and the Far East, 158–171
King Arthur and Edinburgh, 271–272

LABOUR opponents of Fascism, arguments of, 486 et seq.
Lancashire and Japanese competition in China, 193
Lane (Margery), The Lighter Side of Diplomacy under William III., 558–564
Legislation, evils of repressive and restrictive, 356–367
Letters from a country gentleman to his wife in the eighteenth century, 406 et seq.
Life in the Stars, 851–861
Liberal Party, The, and the Representation of the People Act, 1918...173
Liberal traditions and Fascism, 479

LIG

Lighter Side of Diplomacy, The, under William III., 558–564
Lockhart's Treatment of Scott's Letters, 382–398
Longford (Rev. W. W.), The Vatican, France and l'Action Française, 611–623
Lyttelton (the Rev. the Hon. Edward), Some Snares of Story-Telling, 120–124

MACDONALD (Mrs. Hugh), A Country Gentleman in London in the Eighteenth Century, 405–416
Macdougall (J. D.), The Scottish Coalminer, 762–781
McEachran (Fion), Human Personality in Dante's 'Divine Comedy,' 508–518
Marriott (Sir John), The Imperial Parliament and the Empire, 302–314; Public Spending and Private Saving, 736–748
Men and women as anecdote-mongers compared, 122
Men and women, contention that they do not differ in their psychological structure a peril to the cause of education, 263
Merit grading for workmen suggested, 732–735
Millais (Sir John) and Holman Hunt and the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood, 547
Mirror of Beauty, The, 708–724
Modern and early Victorian women, their education and intellect compared, 257
Modern girl's contempt for her Victorian forebears ill-founded, 251
Modernism, imprudent concessions of the new Prayer-Book to, 604
Money Bills, powers of the House of Commons and, 174
Moon, waxing and waning of, in country lore, 101–102
Moreau (R. E.), Birds in Ancient Egypt, 500–507
Murray (Kenneth S.), Work and Wages in the Engineering Industry, 725–735

NATION, The, and the Prayer-Book, 597–610
National Church, four types of distinguished, 12–13

POL

National interests or personal privileges, peers must choose between, 442
Nationalism in South Africa, 642–651
Nationality as a disruptive factor within Christendom, 5
Nicholas (Grand Duke), correspondence proving the late Tsaritsa's intrigue and dislike of during the Great War, 373 et seq.
Nineteenth and latter eighteenth century women less masculine, but vital and capable in their own sphere of life, 264
Noel (E. B.), Tennis: Indoors and Outdoors, 687–694
Nuttall (G. Clarke), Superstitions of the Land, 98–107

OAKLEY (Captain R. R.), 'Gooli,' 48–53
Obsequies, The, of Mr. Williams, 840–850
O'Brien (Lieut.-Col. Aubrey), The Reforms and the Indian Army, 28–37
Overseas Dominions, The, and the administration of the British Army, 624–625

PARISH Life in the Fourteenth Century, 399–404
Parliamentary oration as a form of politics, when it originated, 669
Passing of National Churches, The, 1–14
'Pax,' 145–157
Peers, The, and the Nation, 172–183
Peers, though not feudal landowners with definite responsibilities, still play an important part in local government, 441
Pemberton (W. Baring), Ceremony, 519–527
Pet dogs, fondling of in public said to manufacture women Bolsheviks, 822 et seq.
Petre (Maude D.), Fascism in its Relation to Freedom, 479–493
Petrie (Charles), The United States of Europe: A Dream or a Possibility? 782–793
Pink (M. Alderton), Jane Austen and a Forgotten Dramatist, 125–134
Poems, 435–436
Political science, historical mysticism and, 227–236

POL

Pollen (Arthur Hungerford), Jutland and the 'Unforeseen,' 198–207
Position of the late Sir Walter Raleigh among Literary Critics, The, 528–545
Prayer-Book, The new, opinions of bishops and others on, 597 et seq.
Prayer-Book Revision and Common Sense, 805–812
Present-Day Education of Girls, The: an Indictment, 259–269
Production and trade, harmful effects of constantly changing tariffs on, 22
Production, cost of, enhanced by scarcity and dearness of capital, 744
Progress and Perfection, 135–144
Prohibition, why it is chiefly advocated in Great Britain, 356
Propaganda, not unknown in the eighteenth century, 429
Psychical Research, The Truth about, 54–66
Public Spending and Private Saving, 736–748

QUICK (Rev. Canon Oliver C.), The Sacraments in Recent Controversy, 813–821

RALEIGH (Sir Walter) and modern scepticism, 533–545
Reform of the House of Lords, 437–446
Reforms, The, and the Indian Army, 28–37
Reith (Sir John), Broadcasting, the State and the People, 667–674
Religion and the vita sexualis closely bound together, 680
Restrictive Legislation, 356–367
Revising Chamber, type of man and woman needed in, 443
Rew (Sir Henry), The Agricultural Problem and its Solution, 465–478
Rice (Stanley), Communism in India, 38–47
Richards (Philip S.), Progress and Perfection, 135–144
Rohilla War, Warren Hastings and the, 699
Ruskin and the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood, 550–552
Ruskin and the problem of production, 238–239

STR

Russia, A Dramatic Episode in the History of, 368–381
Russia, past and present, and India, 211 et seq.

SACRAMENTS, The, in Recent Controversy, 813–821
Slater (Sir J. Arthur), The World Economic Conference of May 1927, 15–27
Scheer (Admiral), his tactics at the Battle of Jutland, 200
Schiller (F. C. S.), The Truth about Psychical Research, 54–66
School of Administration for the British Army, proposed establishment of, 629
Science and religion, the antagonism between, 581 et seq.
Science and Truth, 337–346
Scott (Sir Walter), Lockhart's treatment of his letters criticised, 382–398
Scottish Coalminer, The, 762–781
Secret disease, ravages of, an Imperial problem, 675
Sellers (Edith), Women Bolsheviks, and how they are Manufactured, 822–829
Sex psychology, the problem of, 260
Shadwell (Arthur), 'The Future of District Nursing,' 865–869
Shakespeare and chess, 82
Sheltered industries, evil effects of high wages of workers in, 726–727
Smith (Lieut.-Col. A. G. Baird), War, Policy, and Progress, 208–215
Socialist Party's electoral programme at the Blackpool Conference an appeal to cupidity, 737
Socialists and the co-operative movement, 315–326
Soloveytchik (George), Ten Years of Bolshevism, 652–666
Some Snares of Story-Telling, 120–124
Spence (Lewis), The Folklore of Edinburgh, 89–97, 270–281
Spencer (Herbert) and others and social statics, 240 et seq.
State Appointment of Bishops, The 794–804
Stone (Brig.-Gen. F. G.), The Capture of the Co-operative Movement, 315–326; The Trade Union Congress, 1927...447–464
Strategical problem of Britain changed by the modern Russian menace, 211

SUB

Submarine war of 1917, the Jutland failure and, 206
Superstitions of the Land, 98–107
Surtax proposal regarded as more insidious than a Capital Levy, 739
Sydenham of Combe (Right Hon. Lord), The Peers and the Nation, 172–183
Sykes (Brig.-Gen. Sir Percy), Alexander the Great as an Explorer, 565–573
Syphilis introduced into Europe by crews of Columbus on their return from the New World, 682

'TENNIS,' derivation of the word a matter of conjecture, 687
Tennis : Indoors and Outdoors, 687–694
Ten Years of Bolshevism, 652–666
Territorial basis of a national Church challenged by the policy of Toleration, 7
Theodorus and Socrates and progress, 137–138
Thomson (G. W.), Craftsmanship and the Scientific Economist, 237–249
Tilby (A. Wyatt), The Distribution of Wealth, 749–761
Toll of Secret Disease, The, 675–686
Trade unionists, majority probably not interested in politics, 321
Trades Union Congress, The, 1927... 447–464
Trevelyan (G. Eileen), Poems, 435–436
Tucker (A. L. P.), Warren Hastings, 695–707
Tudors, The, and the Church of England, 9

UNDERHILL (Sir Arthur), The Victorian Woman, 250–258
United States of Europe, The : A Dream or a Possibility ? 782–793

YOU

United States and Anglo-Japanese co-operation in the Far East, 158 et seq
Upper House, Commons will never consent to any increase in the statutory powers of, 445

VATICAN, The, France and l'Action Française, 611–623
Veale (F J. P.), Restrictive Legislation, 356–367
Venereal disease, its causes, etc., and how it may be prevented and cured, 676
Victorian criticism, the outlines of, 528–533
Victorian Woman, The, 250–258

WAR Graves and the British Commonwealth, 631–641
War, Policy, and Progress, 208–215
Ware (Maj.-Gen. Sir Fabian), War Graves and the British Commonwealth, 631–641
Warren Hastings, 695–707
Warren Hastings, Macaulay and other historians on, 695 et seq.
Western Front, The, active interest of the Prince of Wales in the care of war graves on, 634
Whitton (Lieut.-Col. F. E.), Chess in History and Fiction, 78–88
Whymper (Robert), The Mirror of Beauty, 708–724
Women Bolsheviks, and how they are Manufactured, 822–829
Wood (T. B.), The Farmer's Sheet-Anchor, 216–226
Work and Wages in the Engineering Industry, 725–735
World Economic Conference of May 1927, The, 15–27
Wright (C. Hagberg), A Dramatic Episode in the History of Russia, 368–381

YOUNGHUSBAND (Sir Francis), Life in the Stars, 851–861

PRINTED IN GREAT BRITAIN BY THE WHITEFRIARS PRESS, LTD., LONDON AND TONBRIDGE